

“One day, no matter what, we will win!”¹
When hope conquers the empire

Estonian Institute of Historical Memory
Summer school 2019

22 July, Monday

Arrival

23 July, Tuesday

9:30 Departure from the hotel

10:00 Opening remarks

10:10–10:40 Greeting from the German Embassy in Tallinn

10:45–11:30 Trivimi Velliste on the fight for freedom

11:30–12:00 Coffee break

12:00–13:35 Film The Singing Revolution

13:40–14:40 Open discussion: Jüri Adams, Mart Nutt, Indrek Tarand. Moderator
Indrek Tarand

15:00–15:45 Lunch

16:00–16:30 Indrek Tarand on the phosphorite war

16:35–17:00 Film Rodeo

17:00–17:30 Coffee break

17:30–18:30 Open discussion: Jüri Adams, Mart Nutt, Indrek Tarand. Moderator
Indrek Tarand

19:00 Dinner

¹ The most famous slogan from the time of the Singing Revolution, proclaimed by Heinz Valk, Estonian artist and politician, at the end of his speech on 11 September 1988.

24 July, Wednesday

9:45 Departure from the hotel

10:00–12:00 Tour of Patarei Prison, exhibition organised by the Estonian Institute of Historical Memory. Curator Martin Andreller

12:30–13:15 Tour of the Maardu phosphorite mine with academician Anto Raukas

14:00–14.45 Lunch

15:00–15.45 Presentation on the pop music war against the authorities in Russia

16:00–17.20 Film Disko ja tuumasõda (Disco and Nuclear War)

17:30–18:30 Open discussion

19.00 Dinner

25 July, Thursday

9:30 Departure from the hotel

10:00 Tour of the Memorial to Estonia's Victims of Communism, tour guide Sergei Metlev

11:00–12:00 Juku-Kalle Raid on Soviet propaganda posters

12:00–12:30 Coffee break

12:30–14:00 Poster art workshop, instructor Erik Kyle Loncar

14:15–14:45 Lunch

15:00–16:30 Poster art workshop

16:30–17:00 Coffee break

17:00–18:30 Poster art workshop

19:00 Dinner

26 July, Friday

9:30 Departure from the hotel

10:00–12:00 Poster art workshop

12:30–13:00 Coffee break

13:00–14:45 Poster art workshop

15:00–15:45 Lunch

16:00–18:00 Poster art workshop

19:00 Farewell dinner

27 July, Saturday

Departure